... passing times are coming every day and nothing that we do in life alters the thoughts left on the way — the passing times will forever
stay.

We, the 1973 Innitou, would like to recall these times passed as our remembrance.

Youth is a poem with
a springtime theme,
measured by moments of laughter and dreams.

It is striving to stretch the range of the eye and ear;
it is taking time to look, to listen and comprehend.

Life without a friend
is death without a witness.

So in these ever changing passing times let us pause to recall the memories of these friends.

Everything that exists
is in a manner the seed
of that which will be . . .

Look to this
day for it is life,
the very life of life. In its brief course lie all the verities and realities of your existence

The bliss of growth; the glory of action; the splendor
of beauty;

For yesterday is already a dream, and tomorrow is only a vision;

But today, well lived,
makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision
of hope. Look well,
therefore, to this day!

DR. CHARLES W. LAMONTAGNE
Superintendent

Congratulations to the Class of 1973. The few years of your high school career have been shared with the historic events of a changing era. Memorably, indeed, will history record the ending of the armed conflicts in much of Indo-China which for the past decade has so influenced your lives and the attitudes of the nation as a whole.

The future is exciting and rich for you to continue your education, to develop your life, and to help yourself and your fellow man. Surely, your intellectual and vocational growth will continue.

In today's world there are many avenues beckoning to the future; a key path is learning. There are two things that cannot be taken from you, barring catastrophe or tragedy: one, the knowledge which you acquire and store in your head; and, two, the skills which you develop with your hands.

As you go forth, I know you have the tools for success — gained from the help of your parents, your teachers, and your church.

Best wishes to each of you.

To The Members of The Class of 1973:

Within the covers of this splendid edition of the Innitou, there exists a permanent, pictorial record of your years in the Woburn Senior High School.

The intensive and careful preparation of this volume is evidence of the arduous labors of your classmates and of the dedicated efforts of your Staff Advisors.

The current atmosphere of change that has pervaded our society has had a profound impact on secondary schools. Accepted, traditional concepts come into question. The complexity of our society and the rate of acceleration of change have challenged the school to develop ways to enable you to meet these problems with a spirit of inquiry, dedication, and justice.

The attitudes that you have developed in your daily associations in the school community will reflect in substance the extent to which you have been prepared for this ever-changing society.

It is our prayerful wish and hope that this volume will be a happy, permanent memento of those days, activities, and Staff Members that helped to prepare you for active participation in preserving the fundamental aims of our American way of life.

Dedication

We the Class of 1973 dedicate the 1973 Innitou to a warm and dedicated individual whose personal assistance and professional guidance have been provided without reservation to the members of the class during the past four years.

As our guidance counselor she has conscientiously aided the students in their preparation for future endeavors. As our class advisor, she has also enthusiastically co-ordinated our extra-curricular activities with successful results in all our social functions.

Sensing her commitment to excellence, the class placed its trust in her, and she reciprocated by providing the necessary leadership throughout these sometimes turbulent years. With great respect and sincere admiration, we are pleased to acknowledge and happily recall the memorable moments we have shared with you . . .

Key Club

The Woburn High School Key Club carried on this year in its established tradition as Woburn High School's leading service club. The Key Club sold football programs at all home Tanners Games in the fall. The club also gave Christmas toys to needy children as well as food baskets at Thanksgiving.

Key Club President Richard Greene provided the dynamic leadership which spurred the club on for this outstanding year. The club assisted the local Red Cross in setting up every blood mobile which serviced the city of Woburn. The club has been a fixture at Woburn High School since its inception in 1954 and the 1972-73 year has proven to be one of their most productive.

The 1973 Literary Magazine of the Woburn Senior High School completed a successful year publishing two editions. In past years the magazine has twice won the highest Achievement Award in Journalistic Competition sponsored by the New England Scholastic Press Association. Art work, short stories and poems are submitted by members of each class. Two thousand copies of the magazine are printed and distributed during the year to the student body.

You're about to take a giant step forward into your future. We think we can make it the bright one you want it to be at New England Telephone. With a job that's every bit as big as your ambition. You see, we need people. With all kinds of talents. And especially, people who really want to get going with their future. And want to be rewarded with automatic raises. If you want a job and a future that's tailored to your talent... along with unusually generous fringe benefits, stop in and see your guidance counselor. Ask when and where you can apply for an interview with the people who want to make your future as happy as you want it to be.

New England Telephone An equal opportunity employer
